CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENCE—A VERY REMARKABLE CASE IN MISSOURI.

[From the Kansas City Times, 12th]

The Circuit Court of Nodaway county, Mo., has been in session during the past week, Judge I. C. Parker presiding. Most of the time was occupied in the trial of Solomon McAlpine for the murder of John Callicott, developing a most singular case of circumstantial evidence.

In August, 1866, these two young men left Hollyville, Iowa, to come to St. Joseph to buy apples, expecting to load their wagons here and return to Iowa and sell their fruit. Not long after, some few days, we believe, McAlpine returned to Hollyville, told some plausible story about his partner having made other arrangements and gone on to St. Joseph, and for some time no further notice was taken of the matter. The continued absence of Callicott and the fact that nothing was heard from him, finally induced the arrest of McAlpine, but on his examination nothing was elicted criminating him, and he was discharged. A long search for Callicott proved unavailing, and for eighteen months a profound mystery envel-ped the case.

In March, 1868, a party of railroad engineers, surveying the route of the Missouri Valley railroad, some six miles Northeast of Marysville, found the skeleton of a man. An investigation aroused the su-picion that it was Callicott. The authorities in Iowa were written to, and witnesses were brought down. The mother of Callicott recognized a bony protuberance on the chin of the skeleton; also the absence of a tooth drawn on the day he started on his fatal trip, and his mother preserved the tooth. It fitted the jaw of the skeleton, and a dentist testified that it had been drawn from the office. Pieces of a blue coat and several peculiar buttons were found near the skeleton.

These were recognized as resembling parts of Callicott's dress when he left home. There were three bullet holes in the skull. The identification was so complete that Mr. McAlpine was rearrested, and, after several continuances, the case came to trial on last Monday, and resulted in the conviction of the prisoner. The judge instructed the jury that any want of proof mitigating the crime from murder in the first degree need not restrain their rendering a verdict of murder in the second degree. We learn that neither McAlpine nor his friends or attorneys manifest any dissatisfaction with the verdict, and the case will not be appealed.

SHOCKING SCENE IN ST. LOUIS.—A St. Louis police officer sent the following to his chief a few days ago: "I have the honor to report that between one and two o'clock this morning Sergeant Sheridan met a little girl of the most miserable and poverty stricken appearance, on Second street, near Cherry. She was crying bitterly. Upon being questioned by the Sergeant, she stated that her mother was dead and her father was drunk. The Sergeant went with her to a place in the rear of 1,004 North Second street, where he beheld a most horrible sight. On a board, covered with an old blanket, lay the lifeless body of the child's mother. Beside the corpse were two bottles of whisky and two glasses—the husband and father sitting close by in a state of drunken idiocy. There was not a particle of furniture in the room but the stool upon which the drunkard was sitting. As the officer entered he was invited by the inebriate to take a drink.—The scene, however, was too solemn for the Sergeant to 'smile.' The room without a particle of furniture—the dead mother under the dirty blanket—the whisky bottles and the drunken father—the half-naked, poverty-pinched child, its poor little heart breaking with woe at the midnight hour—formed a picture of misery, degradation and death not so soon to be forgotten. The woman's name was Bridget Dunn. The little girl is thirteen years of age."

A young man in East Tennessee by the name of Lyon has just married his stepmother. Stepmothers are not, as a rule, very nice things to have about a family. But this case is rather peculiar. Old Lyon, like Robin Gray, had money. Young Lyon had none. But he had a sweetheart and of course he went to seek his fortune. Time passed. This is a peculiarity with time. It is somehow always passing. The war came on and young Lyon "went for a soldier." He became a gay and festive "buttermilk ranger." He was wounded. He was a prisoner. The reader has probably heard something of this sort before, but this particular instance is "an owre true tale." Young Lyon returned from the war, and, not to make too long a story out of our material which is already giving out, he found his father married to his sweetheart. He did not commit any nonsense, however. He went to work soberly, stayed at home quietly, waited till the old man died, and then married his mother.—The young couple are said to be doing as well as could be expected.

BABY TALK.—Poor babies have a hard time of it trying to live in France. When the parents are not rich, in many instances they are sent to the country to be reared by some peasant family for a consideration, and but few of them live more than a year, what with the neglect and cruelty practiced upon them. Babies are regarded as luxuries which only the rich can afford. They are so much in the way of their mothers, who act as clerks, saleswomen or book keepers to their husbands, that they cannot receive that care they should, and therefore are packed off to the country to be brought up by hand, like "Pip" was. Recent investigations into the matter of baby farming reveal an extraordinary state of affairs. The number of deaths in comparison to the number of births is frightfully large.—Thousands of infants are sent from Paris to the country, and but few ever return. The claims upon the French woman of the lower class are such that she cannot spare the time the children would require, and hence they are farmed out.

The bitterest and most determined opponents of the admission of Virginia are the carpet-bag and scalawag representatives from the South. This is natural.—They wish to keep open a market in which they can trade in bastard patriotism and pinch-back honesty.—[Pull. Age.

Mr. Chase will probably make himself the next President by holding the Fifteenth Amendment null and void. The Almighty has spared Chase for some wise purpose, we devoutly hope.—[Napoleon, Ohio, Northwest.

SAW MILLS.

I AM PREPARED TO PUT UP DOUBLE CIRcle Saw Mills in workman-like manner for those desiring them.

There are now 460 of these Mills in operation, and in no case have they failed to give entire satisfaction. One advantage of this Mill is, that the sawyer, without changing his position, gives the backward and forward motion to the carriage, with a single lever; and set the log at both ends at the same time, this is a saving of one hand in the mill. This is no humbug. I am responsible for what I say. My residence is 20 miles South of Raleigh, on Neal's Creek. For further particulars address me at Raleigh, N. C.

P. J WRAY.

I will be at Lynn Adams' Store on the 2nd to the 5th of February, where persons desiring to see me will please call.

READ THE FOLLOWING.

Mr. P. J. Wray, Dear Sir:—I am much pleased with my double Circular Saw Mill built by you. I can cut a line 14 inches deep, 20 feet long, in 45 seconds, with my 12 feet overshot wheel. We have to-day cut 5,000 feet weather-boarding, flooring, and inch board, in eight hours.
Dec 23rd 1869. AL. RIDGE FARTIN.

Mr. P. J. Wray:—We are well pleased with our new double action Mill, that you set to work for us. We can cut twice the amount of lumber that we could with the old Mill of 48 inch saw and same water wheel.

JAMES PENNY.

This last mentioned Mill may be seen on Walnut Creek, 5 miles South of Raleigh.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 21, 1870.

THE SHOFFNER WAR BILL.

The House of Commons, on Wednesday night, passed the Shoffner Military Bill-after some amendments, the most important of which was the striking out the section looking to a suspension of the writ of habeas corpus. As we have said before, while this assault on the fundamental principles of civil liberty was, abstractly, one of the boldest and most dangerous movements ever witnessed in this county, there are other features of the bill still retained in it, more directly tyrannical in character, and dangerous to individual rights. The power placed in the hands of one man, or a few men, of seizing any citizen without formal accusation of crime or misdemeanor, made on affidavit, and then transporting him to a distant point for trial, is a power so dangerous to the liberty of individuals and so at war with the genius and spirit of Republican institutions, as not to be tolerated. Such power should not be trusted in the hands of any individual, however, patriotic and unprejudiced he might be deemed; how much less in the hands of partizans in times of political contests, when its exercise may redound to the success of the party using it.

We say that the passage of this bill will be a woful event to the State; it will be a firebrand that will do more mischief than can be undone by the movers and supporters of it within a life time.

The bill is ostensibly for the suppression of Ku Klux; its tendency will be to engender resistance to what will be felt an unconstitutional and tyrannical law, gotten up by partisans for party purposes. It professes to be for the protection of life and liberty, while it puts the life and liberty of every citizen in the hands of one man. It pretends to be for the suppression of disguised Ku Klux, and sends out an undisguised Ku Klux to arrest, imprison and oppress, without constitutional restraint, every man whom his prejudice, or want of judgment may point out as the object of his arbitrary power.

The masked Ku Klux seize men and take them to the woods for trial, without warrant of law; for this they are amenable to the civil law, and if found out there would be no difficulty in arresting them and making them answer for their acts. The unmasked Ku Klux will seize a man, without warrant of law, (except this unconstitutional law,) deprive him of all the rights and safeguards the Constitution throws around him for his protection, take him to a distant point where he can be more easily murdered, if his murder should be considered necessary, and there is no remedy against this unmasked Ku Klux for his act.

But there is another secret society besides the Ku Klux, in whose interest, and for the welfare and advancement of whose members, this bill is really designed. This society, we mean the League, has its secrets; what those secrets are the world know not, but they must be important, as death is the penalty for divulging them. We are obliged to judge this secret society by its acts; and what they are?

In Randolph county, members of this secret society took an infant from the breast of its mother and sent her five miles to bring her husband before them to answer the charge of voting against the instruction of the League.

In Wilson this same society took a colored man out at the dead hour of the night and gave him three hundred stripes for voting against the League, and when the perpetrators of this outrage were tried and convicted, the President of the League, the very man into whose hands this bill places such extraordinary powers, Gov. Holden, pardoned them and set them at liberty.

Right here, in the city of Raleigh, on the first of this year, one colored man, whose name we did not learn, was attacked near the old Star office, by a number of the leaguers, used very roughly handled, because he expressed a determination to vote against the League nominations in the municipal election. Another colored man, John Jones, the well digger, was set upon and beaten and driven out of town, as we are told, because he voted against the League. Hundreds of similar instances might be mentioned, but these will serve to show the animus of the party in whose behalf this monstrous bill is gotten up, and the evil is ten fold enhanced when we remember the power it gives us to be placed in the hands of one who is identified with this secret society and the mainspring of all its movements.

But we forbear further remarks on the subject for the present. We have no idea that anything we may say will have the effect of changing the decrees of the caucus and the League; but we were not content to let the matter pass without one more effort to warn the people of the impending storm that is gathering over them.

OFF THE TRACK.—The 10 o'clock passenger train on the N. C., road was behind time this, (Tuesday,) forenoon, the delay having been caused by the eastern bound freight running off the track near Cobbe's creek. Seven box cars were smashed up, but no injury to person was reported.—Charlotte Observer.

"LITTLE AMBITION."

"All mankind to some lovel ale incline,
Great men choose greater sins—ambition's mine."

So said Richard. Cromwell was charged to "drag away ambition," because by that sin the angels fell. We like, however, to see a laudable ambition, energy and enterprise, whether in men or corporations. But the noblest qualities of our nature may become mischievous, if not properly controled and directed by reason and justice.

The Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, or "Little Ambition," as we call her, paid, last year, $60,000 as a bonus to the North Carolina Railroad, for that road to divert its freights at Raleigh to the R & G. Road, instead of taking them on to Goldsboro'.—This year, it is probable she will pay $80,000 for the same privilege.

What with her own and her Chatham Road enterprise, we think that "Little ambition" has taken about as much on her shoulders as she can well carry, and that, by present arrangement, half her nett income will go to the North Carolina Road. It was on this account that the lease of the North Carolina Railroad was so slyly and secretly concocted and the attempt made to so hastily put it through, last Fall.

Having failed in leasing, the effort is now to be made to buy. Gen. Phil. will be the quiet engineer to get the scheme through the Legislature, while he may safely, we think, count on the assistance of Lassiter, Willie D. Jones, and the old committee on the Penitentiary.

If Barnett's bill should fail, there will be another bill to sell a part of the stock—say, a million or so, enough to give "Little Ambition," by purchasing it, a controlling influence in the N. C. Road, which, of course, will be so used as to make that road and the balance of its stock subservient to the interest of the R. & G. Road, without the annual outlay of $60,000, or $80,000, and without regard to the interests of the Eastern end of the Road, or the ports of Wilmington and Newbern.

All these movements are "Ring" tricks, inaugurated for individual or corporation aggrandizement, without thought or regard for the prosperity of the State or the welfare and convenience of the people.—This Radical administration is prolific of such projects of stockjobbers and speculators, and we are sorry to say it, but it is true, that many are entering into them of whom better things might have been expected.

Twenty years uninterrupted prosperity will not enable the State to recover from the ruin and disgrace which Holden's administration, and the cliques and Rings it has fostered, have brought upon us. Let North Carolina now sell her Railroads and she leaves her people at the mercy of soulless corporations, managed by Stockjobbers and speculators, who will fleece them by high freights and thus clog the wheels of her progress for all time to come.

The following card appeared in the Standard of yesterday morning; a copy of which was sent also to the SENTINEL, and would have been published, on the same day, but was crowded out. We give it this morning, as we intended to do:

A CARD.

RALEIGH, Jan. 19, 1870.

Sir:—An article in the Raleigh Sentinel of the 19th instant, entitled a "Scallawag in a New Role," evidently has reference to myself as guilty of the atrocious crime of insulting a lady on the train from Goldsboro to Raleigh. The charge is made anonymously, and without proof, and I hereby proclaim the same unfounded, false, and malicious, gotten up as I verily believe, for the purpose of injuring me politically, personally and officially. In the whole course of my life, which extends over forty years, I never insulted a lady or a gentleman knowingly; and without respect to party, I can confidently appeal to my associates in the Legislature who know my manner of life in this city that I am incapable of committing such an offence.

Respectfully yours,
JAMES SINCLAIR.
Representative, Robeson County.

We don't care to get into a lengthened controversy with the "fighting parson," and don't intend to do it. We gave the facts concerning the affair on the train from Goldsboro', last Saturday night, as they were reported to us by responsible parties, who will substantiate all we said. And we now repeat that, James Sinclair did, on the train from Goldsboro' to Raleigh, on Saturday night, January 15th 1870, behave so rudely and insultingly to two young ladies, who were travelling in charge of the conductor, that one of the young ladies fainted under the excitement his conduct caused her, and that they had to demand the protection of the conductor against him. That he was taken from the coach in consequence of his conduct.

We have made the statement; Sinclair has his remedy; we dare him to the test; and we will prove all we have said.

"Mr. Gunter of Chatham, is informed that the editor of the Standard did not receive the report of the second Chatham meeting."

So says the Standard of Thursday morning. Now, we inform Mr. Gunter that the proceedings of the meeting alluded to were sent to the Standard, by William Rigsby, one of our office boys, who handed it to Mr. Whitaker, the editor not being in at the time. Rigsby soon returned with the copy and reported that Mr. Whitaker said they would not publish it, and there the matter ended. The proceedings of the meeting at Oxford was also sent to the Standard office, as requested, and were not published, because, we suppose, the editor didn't want his party in one part of the State to know what his party in another part of the State were doing.

STILL KEEPS HIS SEAT.—We see our old friend Moring, Representative of this county in the House, still keeps his seat and votes on all questions that come up, notwithstanding he is bunned by the 14th amendment, and he knows it. We can't see how he can have the face to do so. We will go further and say we don't think any right thinking man would do it. O. Moring! Moring! Moring! Aint you ashamed of yourself?

The Legislature of North Carolina.

NIGHT SESSION.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WEDNESDAY Jan'19.

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order at half past seven o'clock.

The debate upon the war bill was resumed.

Mr. Durham said he knew that nothing that he could say would alter the mind of any one, but it was duty which he owed, not only to his constituents, but to himself that he should express his disapprobation of the bill under debate. He was sorry that the members of the dominant party in this House should in rodnce a bill fraught with such dangerous consequences to the people and their liberties. He thought that the provisions of the bill were extraordinary and arbitrary to say the least of it. He called attention to the unheard of powers which the first section of the bill conferred upon the Governor, and argued to show that its provisions were violative and indirect conflict with the law now in our Revise Code in regard to the power conferred upon the Governor as Commander-in-Chief of the military forces of the State, and also violated the spirit and letter of our present State Constitution.

If this bill should be passed in its present shape, that section would allow one man, to declare the whole State in rebellion and let an armed rabble loose upon an unarmed and defenceless people, uncontrolled and untramelled by law or anything else save the will and caprice of one individual.

This section does not require that the Governor shall have the affidavits of Sheriffs and magistrates that the laws were being resisted, before he could call out the militia, but left the supreme power in the hands of the Executive without a single safeguard against the improper use of this tremendous authority.

The question had been asked time and again if this bill gave the Governor any more power than he already possessed and itepublicans evaded a direct reply. Every man of sense knew that the moment any county or counties are declared in a state of insurrection and troops called out that a state of war prevails and the civil power is suspended and made subordinate to the military. Private property could be seized and converted to public uses and it pay for the property was ever obtained it would be by the uncertain and tardy action of the Legislature. Mr. Durham as an illustration of what the condition of the country would be if insurrection should be declared to exist, called attention to the manner in which things were managed when the President declared the Southern States in Rebellion, and sent the armies of the Union among us. These armed mobs would steal and rob from the poor farmers and citizens of the counties to which they are sent, and the only redress left to the people is an appeal to the chief despot.

In regard to the 3rd section giving Solicitors such unlimited authority concerning the removal of trials, he would inform gentlemen that the people of Western North Carolina would not stand quietly and see their neighbors and friends arrested and dragged from their homes hundreds of miles to be tried by a packed jury and deprived of all the rights guaranteed to every man by the Bill of Rights of the Constitution. If the gentleman from Chowan (Moore,) attempted to lead this proposed militia to the Western part of the State on any errand of this kind, he would meet a much warmer reception than he did when Colonel of the militia in 1861.

He believed that this whole measure was concocted to fasten and keep upon the people a state of affairs which has disgraced the administration of the State governments for some time past. He opposed the bill on the ground of the strife and disturbances, likely to ensue by its passage. All these alleged outrages, was, in his opinion, attributable to the fact that the Governor, swayed by his political prejudice and motives of personal aggrandizement, had failed to do his duty by the people of the State. For political purposes, and to conciliate a disreputable element, in order to obtain their votes at the next election, had turned loose upon society, within a short time, some forty or fifty convicts.

Not very long ago the Governor saw fit to pardon twenty-four hours after their arrival in Raleigh, two or three colored convicts, sentenced to the Penitentiary, and who, when passing through a certain town shortly afterwards, were seen exhibiting their pardons and were heard to declare that the Governor was their friend, and they had no doubt but that he would pardon them again if they ever needed it, and they intended to do just as they pleased.

If this state of affairs was to last, he (Mr. D.) prayed God every decent man would turn Ku Klux and unite to protect society from the outrages and depredations of pardoned Penitentiary convicts. He charged that these alleged outrages was the consequence of the prostitution of the prerogatives vested in the Executive and Judicial branches of the government.

But for the glaring corruption which prevaded nearly every department of the State government, peace and tranquility would prevail. Judges shamelessly and openly, even while engaged upon the Bench, indulged in political harangues and allowed their decisions to be biased by political considerations, &c. Even while this debate was going on there were Judges in the lobby electioneering for the passage of this bill. If gentlemen instead of talking about faithless and insufficient Grand Juries would impeach corrupt and ambitious Judges and other officers, and replace them with men in whom the people had confidence, North Carolina, would be as orderly and quiet as any State in the Union.

The whole administration was a complete failure and the Republican party in this General Assembly had virtually acknowledged it. Only a short time ago had not the Senate passed a series of resolutions bolstering up the credit of the State, and now, on yesterday, both Houses passed a resolution suspending the payment of interest upon the special tax bonds, thus acknowledging the complete failure of the financial policy of the "glorious" Republican party.

He charged that a large majority of the House were completely under the influence of that stupendous swindling concern known as the "Ring," and threw every obstacle in the way of the investigation of the patent misuse of the people's money. Let a poor man steal a coat worth $5 and away he goes to the Penitentiary, but the man who steals six millions of dollars from the people of the State, is allowed to walk the streets of Raleigh with impunity, and is sheltered and protected by the Legislature.

Many of the gentlemen who now have seats upon this floor, knowing that the people will repudiate them at the next election, have grown reckless and will vote for holding over until 1872, or failing in that, will support this bill in order to intimidate voters, and force themselves upon them at the next election.

Mr. Durham after reviewing the numberless constitutional objections, the great wrong it perpetrated upon the liberties of the people and the wicked motives which prompted its introduction, concluded by denouncing in severe terms the glaring malfeasance of the whole administration of the State Government, which he charged as producing the disorder which may now exist in the State.

Mr. Argo moved to refer the bill to a special committee of 5 members of the House, whose duty it shall be to examine into the condition of affairs in those counties in which insurrection is alleged to exist, and in which it is said the law can not be executed, and report to this House at an early a day as practical as to the truth of these allegations, and what legislation is necessary.

Mr. Seymour spoke for some time in support of the bill, and concluded by calling for the previous question.

The call was sustained and the question recurred upon Mr. Argo's motion to refer which was rejected by a vote of yeas 38 nays 64.

The question recurring upon Mr. Malone's amendment striking from the 1st section the power given to the Governor to declare at his option any county in a state of insurrection, it was rejected by the following ballott.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 21, 1870.

Thos. N. Ramsay, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

Another Fair and Feast.—We understand that our Baptist friends, especially the ladies of the Baptist congregation, are making preparations for a Fair and Feast, to come off not long hence, the time and place to be designated hereafter, for the purpose of raising funds for some Church enterprise. A grand time may be anticipated.

The President, last Monday, sent the name of D. H. Starbuck to the Senate, for District Attorney of North Carolina.

Lecture.—We understand that Prof. S. Adams Lee has been engaged to deliver a Lecture in Raleigh, at some no distant day, for the benefit of the Rescue Steam Fire Engine Company, the time and place of which will be announced in due time.

Remember the important meeting of the Mechanics' Building and Loan Association, at the Court House, to-night.

Anecdote of the Bench.—When the friends of Chief Justice Pearson were urging his claims to a seat on the United States Supreme Court Bench, he took occasion to compliment Tourgee's legal acumen, in one of his opinions, saying that he entertained such opinion, and was confirmed in it because Tourgee thought the same way.

A day or two ago, while a cause was being argued, (we forget the title,) and a certain ruling was stated to have been made by Tourgee, the Chief Justice asked, "Did his Honor rule that way?" Being informed that he did, a broad smile spread over the judicial countenance, and with a significant "umph!" he reversed the decision.

Trinity College.—The increasing prosperity and reputation of Trinity, is both a marvelous wonder and a great blessing.—How a first class University can rise up without appropriations, and flourish without endowment, must be astonishing to the powers that be. Yet such is the truth. The present session at Trinity commences with over one hundred and fifty Students. Go on young gentlemen. Hoorah for native North Carolina!

Queries.—What has become of the Representative of Pitt, Prince Loflin?

What member of the N. C. Bench came up from Goldsborough to Raleigh, the day after the masquerade ball in Newbern?

Who paid the Railroad fare from Goldsboro' to Raleigh, of Florence Morris, on that occasion?

What has become of Capt. Bosher?

Will those who have not paid their special tax, now have it to pay?

If not, will those who have paid it, have it refunded to them?

If not, will the amount in the Treasury be divided among the "hands?"

A Beautiful Complexion.

DR. TUTT'S SARSAPARILLA and QUEEN'S DELIGHT, The GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER, expels all humours from the system; it acts directly on the Depuratory organs; the skin is one of the most important of these organs, and by the use of this invaluable medicine it is cleansed and rendered soft, fair and healthy. Health's Best Defence.

"The weak eateth herbs," says St. Paul, so that eighteen hundred years ago the value of medicinal plants was appreciated. In the Old Testament botanical remedies are repeatedly recommended, but in no passage of sacred history is man recommended to swallow calomel, or blue pill, or any other mineral preparation. The sick were directed to eat herbs to strengthen them, to purify them, to heal them, to restore them. In that day the art of making vegetable extracts was unknown. The herbal medicines were mere infusions.

It was reserved for a later age to unite the sanitary essences of tonic, aperient and antibilious roots, barks, and plants, with an active stimulant, and thus secure their rapid diffusion through debilitated or disordered system. The crowning triumph of this effective mode of concentrating and applying the virtues of medicinal vegetables was achieved in the production of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Never before had a perfectly pure alcoholic stimulant been combined with the expressed juices of the finest specifics of the vegetable kingdom. Never yet, though eighteen years have elapsed since its introduction, has this great restorative been equalled. It is taken at all seasons, in all climes, as the most potent safeguard against epidemics, as a protection against all unhealthy exhalations that produce debility or beget disease; as a remedy for intermittent and other malarious fevers; as an appetizer; as a sovereign cure for dyspepsia; as a general tonic and invigorant; as a gentle, painless aperient; as a blood depurent; as a nervine; as a cure for billious affections; as a harmless anodyne; and as the best defence of health under unfavorable circumstances, such as sedentary pursuits, undue bodily or mental exertion, hardship, privation and exposure.

SUPREME COURT.

Thursday, Jan. 20th.

Court assembled at the usual hour, all the Justices being present on the Bench.

The case of Edward T. Broadnax, et. al, vs. Zacharian Groom, et. al. Rockingham, being set for to-day, was taken up, and argued at length, by Hon. W. H. Battle, for the plaintiff and Hon. S. F. Phillips, for defendant.

At 2 o'clock, the Court took a recess of one hour, for dinner, re assembling at 3 P. M.

The argument in the Broadnax case was concluded by Hon. W. A. Graham, for the plaintiff.

This is a most important case; and the questions involved in it, were ably argued by the learned counsel, on both sides.—The greivance complained of is irregular arbitrary, unauthized and exhorbitant taxation, levied by the Commissioners of Rockingham County for certain special purposes, among others the building of a bridge over the Dan River. The tax the Commissioners undertook to levy, amounted to the sum of $37,000, of which $12,000 was intended for the bridge.

The principal legal points embraced in the case, are,

1st. Whether an order for an injunction can be made by any Judge out of the District in which the action is to be tried, involving the construction of the sections 188, 190, 344, 345, of the Code of Civ. Pro.

2nd, Whether an act of the Legislature authorizing the County Commissioners to levy a special tax, requires to be submitted to a vote of the people of the county, before the tax can be levied and collected. This involves the construction of art. 2, sec. 16, art. 5, sec. 7, and art. 7, sec. 7, of the constitution of the State.

3rd, Whether the Legislature can authorize any other than the Township Board of Trustees to assess the taxable property of their Townships; and therefore, whether the Revenue Law of 1868-9, so far as it attempts to provide other assessors in the Townships, is not unconstitutional.

4. Whether the County Commissioners of Rockingham County did not violate the provisions of the Revenue act of 1868-9 chapter 74, sec. 19, when they undertook to alter the valuation made by the assessors by making the valuation of 1860, the standard of the value of the property, instead of simply revising the valuation made by the assessors.

When this case was called his honor Justice Settle, vacated his seat, and continued off the Bench, during the argument.

There was a large number of lawyers present in Court during the day. Besides the Raleigh Bar, and members of the Legislature, the following gentlemen of the Bar, were in attendance, viz: Hons. W. A. Graham and James M. Leach, Messrs. C. P. Mendenhall, Ralph Gorrell, W. L. Scott, B. F. Howze, and J. M. McCorkle, Esq.

To-morrow at 10 A. M. the impending case of the State vs. John W. Thomas, will be taken up. A fine array of legal talent will appear in this case.

Opinion in the following case has been delivered:

Ransom vs. McCleese, from Tyrrell. Suit on a note for $400, brought by endorsee against the endorser and the makers; equitable set off pleaded by the defendants, verdict for defendants, appeal by Plaintiff.

Pearson, C. J.—No error, judgment affirmed.

1. In a suit brought by the holder of a note, as assignee with notice, against the makers and endorser, as administratrix, the defendants may plead as a counter claim or equitable set off, a note held against the endorser's intestate, by the makers of the note on which the suit is brought.

2. A defendant is to answer or demur.—If he answers, the plaintiff is to reply or demur; but he is at liberty to do both at the same time. The effect of thus pleading is that the answer or reply waives the demurrer, and the case stands open to no objection, except the want of jurisdiction, or that "the complainant does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action."

3 Under the new Code, if a demurrer be overruled, the case is opened for judgment, as if the party had made no defence; unless he obtains license to amend his pleadings, by putting in an answer or reply.

4. When several allegations are made in support of "a single cause of action," the opposite party cannot reply to some of the allegations, and demur to others.

5. A Judge is not bound to take it for granted, at the suggestion of counsel, that the jury did not understand him, and for that reason that he ought to repeat his instructions.

Court adjourned until to-morrow, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Cotton Robbery—Thief Arrested.—Some time during Monday night last, a thief or thieves entered the warehouse of Messrs. Petteway & Moore, and carried off about a half bale of cotton. Yesterday information concerning the robbery was lodged with Constable Hill, who towards nightfall, overhauled one Jerre Forbes (col.) and committed him to the Tombs.

In Jerre's possession he found seven bags marked P. & M. The bags were wet, which fact Joe thinks indubitable evidence that Jerry had sought a purchaser for his booty and was compelled to take it through the rain in quest of some accommodating junkist with whom he might "drive a trade;" but lynx eyed Joe struck the trail, and brought to bay light-fingered Jerry, who undoubtedly had Moore's cotton than he was entitled to.—Wil. Star, Jan. 19.

An Extended Popularity.—"Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been before the public many years. Each year finds them in new localities in various parts of the world. The Troches are pronounced universally superior to all other articles used for similar purposes. For relieving Coughs, Colds, and Throat Diseases, the Troches have been proved reliable.

KEROSENE LIGHTS PERFECTED!

DANFORD'S
Atmospheric
KEROSENE LAMP.

THE ONLY PERFECTLY SAFE LAMP IN USE.

Artificial Light, of some sort, is a universal necessity; a safe, cheap, and brilliant one is a luxury; a luxury, too, only enjoyed heretofore by those living in large towns or cities where Gas is used. Years of study and thousands of dollars annually have been spent by experiments of different kinds, in trying to invent and perfect a Burner or Lamp by which Coal Oil or Kerosene could be burned practicably, without the expense and trouble of chimneys; this long looked for and much desired subject has, at last, been obtained, and is styled the

ATMOSPHERIC KEROSENE LAMP!

Its adaptation to Dwellings, Churches, Railroads, Steamboats, Hotels, Stores, &c., is unsurpassed, in short, this invention brings the luxurious and brilliant Gas Light within the reach of all, whether in the City or Country. It gives the light of a six-foot Gas Burner, for less than one cent per hour, or double the quantity of light, of the ordinary chimney-lamp with one third less oil; will burn, when turned down to a taper light ten hours for one cent; is free from smoke or smell; can be carried from room to room; the wind will not blow it out.

This Lamp is destined to supersede all portable artificial light or chimney lamps now in use and needs only to be seen to be appreciated; thousand of them will find ready sale in every county no family that uses this light for one evening will again be annoyed with the chimney-lamps Thousands of them will be used in cities, as this light is one-half cheaper than Coal Gas, and much more pleasant to the eye.

The sole right for the sale of this Lamp can be had for the entire State or the same will be sold by Counties.

Parties purchasing will be supplied, at wholesale, with the lamp and fixtures at reasonable rates.

Immediate application should be made to secure the choice of Counties.

The Lamp can be seen in full operation during the day and evening at the Yarbrough House.

All letters will receive prompt attention and full explanation of the Lamp given.

HENRY'S

BLOOD CLEANSER.

This medicine is known to the faculty as being the concentrated fluid extract of Sarsaparilla united with other valuable medicinal herbs, and is guaranized as chemically pure.

SCROFULA AND CONSUMPTION.

This remedy is compounded expressly for purifying and cleansing the blood of all infirmities, going at once to the fountain-head of disease. It extinguishes

Tumors, Consumption, Syphilis, Skin Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Boils, Rheumatism, Waste of Vitality, Scrofula.

We all know that the promiscuous vaccination indulged in during the late war bred the most villanous diseases. Vaccination pus was taken from the arms of many persons full of scrofulous sores.

Then of course the impurities of the scrofulous patient were absorbed in the blood of men otherwise without diseases, and both be came in contact alike. Men, women and children throughout all the West are most woefully diseased from this cause, and knew not, until a few months ago, the origin of it.

Henry's Constitution Renovator

Relieves the Entire System of Pain and aches. enlivens the spirits, and sends new blood

ROUNDING THROUGH EVERY VEIN.

It imparts a

Sparkling Brightness to the Eye,
A Rosy Glow to the Cheek,
A Ruby Tinge to the Lips,
A Clearness to the Head,
Brightness to the Complexion,
Buoyancy to the Spirits,
And Happiness on all Sides.

For all affections of the kindneys it is unsurpassed.

People have been rescued, as it were, from the very jaws of death, by a timely use of this great remedy.

EXTRACTS FROM VARIOUS LETTERS.

Until I had a bottle of your "Constitution Renovator" sent me by Mr. Roper, of Columbus, Mo., I suffered tortures with running sores since I used two bottles I am all well except a small sore on the calf of my left leg, and that is getting well fast."

This from a lady.—"And now my skin is as clear and fair as a babe's. My complexion, thanks to your "Renovator," is beautiful.

PRATT'S "ASTRAL" OIL.

UNLIKE MANY OTHER ILLUMINATING Oils, is perfectly pure, and free from all adulterations or mixtures of any kind. It emits no offensive smell while burning, gives a soft and brilliant light, and can be used with the same assurance of safety as gas. Chemists pronounce it the best and safest illuminating Oil ever offered to the public, and Insurance Companies indorse and urge upon consumers the use of the "Astral" Oil in preference to any other. It is now burned by thousands of families, and in no instance has any accident occurred from its use; a lamp filled with it, if upset and broken, will not explode. To prevent adulteration, the "Astral" Oil is packed only in the Guaranty Patent Cans, of 1 gallon and 5 gallons each, and each can is sealed in a manner that cannot be counterfeited. Every package with uncut seal we warrant. Be sure and get none but the genuine article, Pratt's "Astra." Oil, for sale by dealers everywhere, and at wholesale and retail by the proprietors

The Norfolk Oil and Fish Guano COMPANY'S.

PHOSPHATIC FISH GUANO.

PRICE $40 PER TON OF 2,000 lbs., AT NORFOLK VA.

Manufactured at Norfolk Virginia.

This article is much superior to the Peruvian Guano as a fertilizer. It contains a much larger percentage of bone phosphate and soda, and nearly as much Ammonia, its effects upon the land will be seen for years.

The following extracts from certificates received from those who used it last year upon Cotton will have a tendency to remove the prejudice produced by the use of manufactured fertilizers, and give confidence in this home made article.

R. Leberman, Esq., of Bertie county N. C., writes: "I have used your Phosphate Fish Guano in equal quantities side by side with Peruvian Guano and found the produce much in favor of your article, the weed was larger, Cotton heavier and the plant kept green through the dry Summer."

J. J. Horton of same State, writes to the same import. Our Circular for January 1870, contains these and other certificates in full.

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 54,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$18,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,16
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,24
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,37
THE NATIONAL,	63,48
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 589 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed nett assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,337 new policies, more than any other Company, except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
